About Gorakhpur

Gorakhpur belongs to the Great Lord Buddha, founder of Buddhism, who renounced his princely costumes at the confluence of rivers Rapti & Rohini and proceeded further in the quest of truth in 600 BC. It is also associated with Lord Mahavir, 24th tirthankar, founder of Jainism. It is the birth place of Gorakhnath. His samadhi at Gorakhpur attracts a large number of pilgrims every year.

The most significant event in the medieval period, however, was the coming of mystic poet and famous saint Kabir to Maghar. It was here that he gave the message to his countrymen to live in peace and religious harmony. The co-existence of 'Samadhi' and 'Makbara' at his burial place in Maghar attracts a large number of followers.

Gorakhpur is also identified with the Gita Press, the world famous publisher of the Hindu religious books. The Gita Press is fore-front in dissemination of religious and spiritual consciousness across the country.

Gorakhpur rose to great eminence due to the historic 'CHAURI CHAURA' incident of 4th Feb., 1922, which was a turning -point in the history of India's freedom struggle.
